

The Streetwork team are on the streets of Edinburgh every day and night of the year in all weathers, reaching more than 1,000 young people and 700 older homeless people annually. The charity work with the most vulnerable people in the city, including under-age runaways and those involved in prostitution, injecting drug use, alcohol and sleeping rough.

All funds generated from these cards will help Streetwork guide individuals towards a better life through increased education, training and job opportunities.
